In the little refinements in the finish of the Nash car there is much to delight the feminine eye and to convince the careful buyer of the stability of the product.

The cushions are deep and luxurious, the upholstery is of genuine leather. Tonneau lamps to add to your comfort and safety, an instrument board complete in all the details of clocks, ammeter, speedometer and gauges.

Notice carefully the door trimmings, the pockets and hand holds on the doors the metal coverings over the threshold, these all indicate a finished product.

The little details in the exterior finish, are reflections of the care expended on the motor.

FINDS GRIP—A black grip was found yesterday by P. M. Linville at the corner of Clarington and Central avenues and has been turned over to the sheriff's office. The owner may have the grip by calling at the sheriff's office and identifying it.

PLEADS GUILTY—Tadros Herros yesterday pleaded guilty in the superior court to a charge of failure to provide for his minor child and was given a suspended sentence of five years by Judge Stanford on condition that he pay $25 to his wife for the support of the child.

A LARCENY CHARGE—Francisco Potolito yesterday was arraigned before Justice Nat. T. McKee on a charge of larceny of a lamp. He was committed to the county jail under a bond of $500 and the hearing was set for September 30. He is charged with taking a lamp from the Phoenix Library park tomorrow night, beginning at 8 o'clock. Miss Bessie will be the soloist of the evening.

ASKS DAMAGES—Damages to the extent of $10,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained when his motor car collided with an oil truck on April 21, 1921, are asked in a suit filed yesterday by Edward J. Collier against the Rio Grande Oil company.

FILE ARTICLES—Articles of incorporation of the Arizona Gypsum Products company were filed with the corporation commission yesterday.

The company incorporated with a capital stock of $500,000 divided into 500,000 shares at $1 each. F. L. Johnson is the president, F. H. Swenson vice president, and W. J. Fellows the secretary.

PUBLICITY TO VALLEY—Proofs have been received of the Salt River valley story to appear in the West magazine, printed in Salt Lake City. Twenty thousand copies of this magazine will go to Eastern investors and home seekers. The story, in addition to a splendid cut of the valley, will contain five other cuts of Salt River valley scenes.

GRANTS EXTRADITION—Governor Thomas R. Campbell yesterday granted the request of the state of Missouri for the extradition of Charles H. McDonald and Thomas B. McDonald, wanted in St. Louis on the charge of obtaining money on false pretenses. The McDonald brothers are accused by St. Louis authorities of making false representations in the sale of automobiles. When arrested here some time ago the two men had $5,100 in cash on their persons.

TEACHERS RECEPTION—The Balis Teachers association will give a reception for the teachers and the community next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Balis school auditorium. The affair will be in the nature of a get-together in which, after a brief program refreshments will be served. All patrons of the district are cordially invited to attend and meet the teachers and the new neighbors.

"THE SUNSPOT" OUT—The September number of "The Sunspot," the chamber of commerce monthly, was delivered from the press yesterday. The magazine, which is unusually attractive, makes up and matter, carries maps and an article showing why Phoenix is the logical distributing point for the state and the northern portion of the country. Old Mexico, while the remainder of the periodical is devoted to short articles of pertinent interest.

A MEETING—A meeting of all members of the Parent-Teacher associations will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank T. Alkire, 218 West Portland street. The meeting will be called by Mrs. Alkire as chairman on membership of the Arizona Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher association, and all membership chairman are urged to attend.

This has been done by the chamber of commerce as part of a general publicity campaign carried on by the advertising committee, of which A. C. Taylor and Roy Murray are joint chairmen. With each copy of the newspaper there will be a personal letter to the editor inviting him to write Arizona and take advantage of the splendid hunting and fishing to be obtained here.

MEXICANS HURT IN RAINBOW ENGINEER

As the result of an altercation yesterday morning between three white men and three Mexicans on the ranch of S. K. Phillips, corner of Asylum and Indian School roads, the Mexicans were in the hospital suffering from head wounds. Hernandez Gonzales, one of them, is seriously wounded, according to reports from the hospital last night, and it is feared that his skull is fractured. Refugio Tanoria, the other sufferer, only a scalp wound. According to the story told to Deputy Sheriff Al DeWitt, Gilbert Blanco and R. M. Price, who were called to the scene, the affair occurred when Phillips, Oscar Cabe and Wesley Cabe went to the homes of the Mexicans on the Phillips ranch to request them to move after their refusal to pick cotton for the price Phillips agreed to pay them. According to the officers, the men wanted the Mexicans to leave the hospital suffering from head wounds. The Mexicans refused to leave until they were loaded in their furniture on a wagon to be moved out into the highway, while the Mexicans wanted to move their belongings over the fence onto the next ranch.
